THURSDAY, MAY 5. 1743.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France, and another from Flanders.

Stockholm, April 30.

ALL the Arts of Negotiation and Address have been practised here, in behalf of the several Candidates for the Succession. As soon as a favourable Express arrived from Abo, the French Minister, who a little before seemed to doubt whither his Crown would pay the Subsidies that became due by Treaty, and for the Non-payment of which he offer'd some very idle Excuses, changed his Tone, and instantly offer'd, upon certain Conditions, to pay a Million of Livres; but we do not hear that this Proposition was accepted. Yesterday there were great Rejoicings at Court, it being the King's Birth-day, when he enter'd the 67th Year of his Age. The Courtiers pretend to have nothing but ill News from our Plenipotentiaries at Abo in Finland; but the manner in which they tell this, inclines us to believe the direct contrary; and that this is only given out to colour the carrying on so great an Armament, which however is necessary on another Account; and this we are the rather induced to believe, because we hear no farther Talk of the Succession. This Morning there arrived an Express from M. Nolken, the Contents of which are kept very secret; and yet some who pretend to have good Intelligence, assert, that the Preliminaries are sign'd, and that Finland is to be evacuated on the Bishop of Lubeck's being chosen Successor to our Crown.

Leghorn, April 20. An English Ship which lately arriv'd from the Hieres, assures us, that the French Governor had sent a Message to Admiral Matthews, by which he acquainted him, that as he knew all imaginable Care was taken by the Officers to prevent the unlucky Accident that lately happen'd there, he had represented it in such a manner to his Court, as that, he hoped, it would have no bad Consequence. We know not what to think of the Affairs of Corsica. The People are all in Arms, and are actually making Preparations for the Siege of Bastia. This is certain, that they have disown'd King Theodore, tho' it is as certain, that he supplies them constantly with Arms, Ammunition, Cloaths, and Money; and that he has privately visited those who publickly refused to see him. The Desertion amongst the Spanish Army has been so great, that in several Companies there have been none left but their Drummers. The City of Bologna has lately borrow'd at Genoa 40,000 Sequins to supply their present Distress, which is as great as can well be.

Venice, April 27. We expect shortly to see the Affairs in Italy take a new Turn, since the Duke of Modena has actually accepted a Commission to command all the Spanish Troops in Chief. Their Intrigues in Switzerland, however, have had but an indifferent Catastrophy. The Baron d'Erlack, whom they had corrupted, and who promised to seduce others in the Regency, has been forced to fly, and a Deputation was thereupon sent to the General, Count de las Minas, to inform him that his Plots were discovered, and that if the Spaniards attempted to force any of the Passes, the Cantons were determin'd to repel Force by Force; and that therefore he would do well to act in such a manner, as to give them no farther Umbrage; for that whatever he might be told, they were a People not to be corrupted, or imposed upon.

Berlin, May 4. The King came hither Yesterday, accompanied by his Brother Prince Henry, and soon after he gave Audience to the Marquis de Botta, Minister from the Queen of Hungary, who was very graciously received; from whence we conclude, that the Reports that have been spread in relation to his Majesty's Design to support the Emperor, are either false in themselves, or owing to Misrepresentations; his Majesty having, in all Appearance, no Intention to meddle farther in the War, unless any Accidents, at present unforeseen, should force him upon it. Our last Letters from Petersbourg speak of a Peace with Sweden as a Thing certain, and to this we impute the suspending the March of a Body of our Troops towards Holstein.

Manheim, May 3. A Fire unhappily broke out here in the Night of the 1st of May, which burnt down a great House, and therein a young Lady of 17 Years old was destroyed, and five other Persons much hurt. The French Troops are quarter'd in our Neighbourhood in such Numbers, that some Tradesmen have no less than 30; and which is worse, we know not how long they may stay here, or how much they may increase; but we flatter ourselves that this Mischief cannot last long, since above 30,000 have already pass'd the River, so that our Guests are those that come to replace them from Lorrain and Alsace.

Heidelberg, May 3. There are actually 8 or 9000 French, Horse and Foot, in this City, so that no-body, no not the Clergy, are exempt from quartering them; nor do the Officers shew the least Respect to Letters from our Elector, in favour of Persons he would have eas'd from such a Burden. Few Houses are without ten Soldiers, and most have more; the Officer who commands these Troops has sent his Orders in pretty rude Terms to our Magistrates, not to suffer any Horse to go out of the Gates on any Pretence whatsoever, without a Licence under his Hand. We are baking a vast Quantity of Bread for the Use of the Troops, and some of the Officers give out, that they are speedily to march, and fight the Auxiliaries where-ever they can find them.

Hague, May 11, The Arrival of the King of Great Britain, which is daily expected, it is thought, will very soon determine the Fate of Europe. Some Propositions of Peace, it is said, have been made both to his Britannick Majesty and the Court of Vienna; but if these should not be accepted, or if the withdrawing the French Army out of Germany should be previously insisted on, a general War will probably ensue. The French Partizans here give out, that Marshal Noailles has 50 or 60,000 Men; but those who have seen his Army, positively assert that it scarce consists of 30,000.

Extract from the Paris Alamain.

Paris, May 10. 'The Court received, on the 6th, an 'Express from M. Noailles, with the News that 14 Battalions, and 15 Squadrons, had passed the Rhine over 'a Bridge of Boats, near Spire, in order to advance towards the Neckar, with a View to oppose the Auxiliaries, who are also in full march for that River.

'The Marriage of the Dauphin will be celebrated in 'September, at Fontainbleau.

'The Post of King's Lieutenant at Dunkirk will be 'added to that Governor, in favour of the Bailly de 'Givry.

'M. le Chevalier de Broglio set out for the Army in 'the Night between the 8th and 9th.

'Letters from Bavaria of the 26th of last Month, inform us, that there have been very great Movements 'in the Army of Prince Lobkowitz; and that all the 'Troops that had not served in the Detachment, had 'Orders to hold themselves ready to march without Equipage; and that half an Austrian Regiment of Caribineers, with most of their Staff Officers, had deserted 'to our Army.

'They talk of a Marriage between the Duke of Penthievre (Son to the late Count de Toulouse, and High 'Admiral of France) and Madaimoselle de Modena, 'Daughter of the Duke of Modena, and Niece to the 'Duke of Orleans.'

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whatever ; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, or Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years been experienc'd never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble ; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out ; and all Persons fatigu'd with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain ; too much cannot be said in it, and this All who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with, succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is intirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary.

LONDON: Printed for M. COOPER, at the Globe in Pater-Noster-Row.
